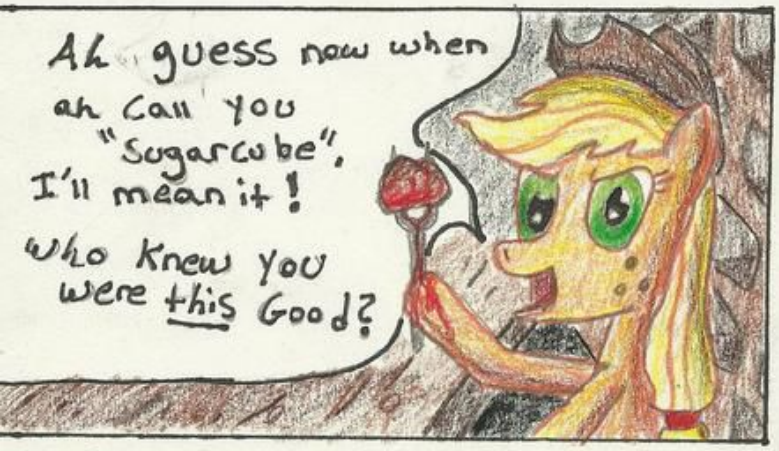
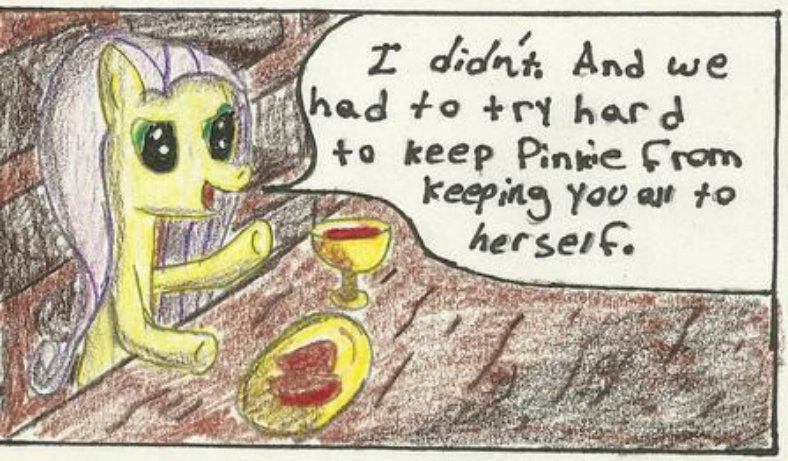
I knew you'd love it! And, just because I'm a good friend, I took the Liberty of Inviting our other Friends.

They'd love to thank you for the meal, wouldn't they?



Ah guess now when ah call you "Sugarcube", I'll mean it!
Who knew you were this Good?



I didn't. And we had to try hard to keep Pinkie from keeping you all to herself.

I simply must have more of your coat, darling! It's wonderful, and just perfect for my next project! Can't have somepony else taking All the Goods before me!

Oh don't worry Rarity. There will be enough left after I'm done.

-NON compos mentis caveat otis-

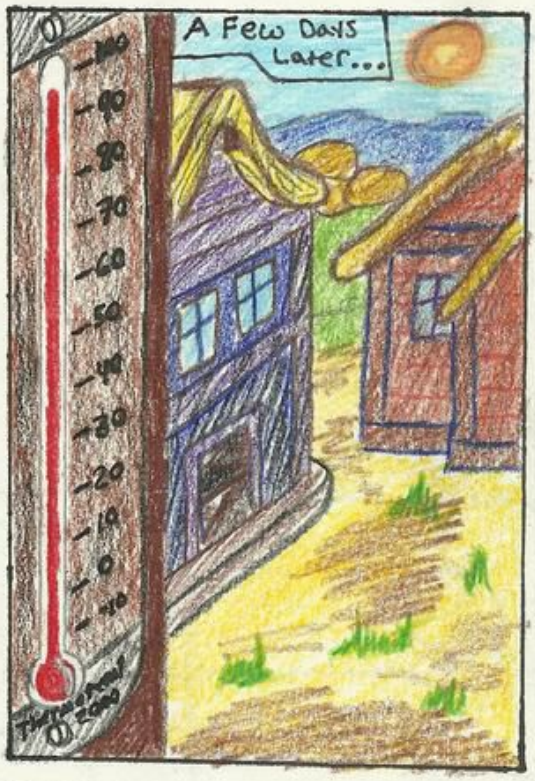
Rainbow Dash was gone. It was in the way she walked, and talked. She had been replaced by this... shell. She drifted aimlessly over Ponyville, without direction, as weeks of sleep deprivation took their final toll.

Her friends noticed, but she turned them away, lashed out, when they tried to help.

She was like a wounded animal; quiet until cornered.

She exhibited all the symptoms of a complete Breakdown. Detatchment from Reality, Insomnia, Extreme mood swings, etc. It was only a matter of time.

That day did arrive. The day Dash finally CRACKED



A Few Days Later...

Ugh. Back this heat. I Can't sleep at all.

Hey. Dash? Can I talk to you for a sec?
